

International Society of Exposure Science 2015 Conference
Student/New Researcher Travel Award Application

First name:	Family name:
Institution:	Position:
Postal address:
Country:	Telephone:
E-mail:	Fax:
For Current Students: At the time of this application, I will have completed ____ years in my: ____ undergraduate program ____ master's program ____ doctoral program	For Post-Docs and New Researchers: At the time of this application, I am ____ years removed from the awarding of my highest degree. Highest Degree: Conferring Institution:
Are you a resident of a developing country? YES <input type="radio"/> NO <input type="radio"/>
Title of abstract:
Abstract Reference Number:
Briefly describe your major professional or training activities as they relate to exposure science, epidemiology, environmental or global health; and the length of time in this field.
Please list your three most recent publications and/or presentations (as applicable):
Have you previously received financial support from ISES to attend a conference?	YES <input type="radio"/> NO <input type="radio"/>
Have you applied to the travel grant offered on the conference website?	YES <input type="radio"/> NO <input type="radio"/>
Have you sought financial support from other sources to attend this meeting?	YES <input type="radio"/> NO <input type="radio"/>
(If a Post-Doc or New Researcher): Are you or a colleague submitting a nomination for the Joan M. Daisey New Researcher Award?	YES <input type="radio"/> NO <input type="radio"/> NOT ELIGIBLE <input type="radio"/>
Briefly describe why financial support to attend this conference is needed and deserved:
If you may receive additional financial support, briefly describe amount, source, and likelihood that you will receive support:

Please email your travel award application to hind.sbihi@ubc.ca by June 12th, 2015.

Please include subject line TRAVEL AWARD: <last name of applicant>.

You will be informed by e-mail when your application is received and further when awardees are selected.